

Housing Accommodations (Close to North Grafton Campus)

Cummings School of Veterinary Medicine at Tufts University is located in North Grafton, MA, which is about 35 miles outside of Boston. Depending on where the visitor is flying from, the local airports are either Boston/Logan or Providence/TF Green (each a 45 – 60 minute drive, depending on traffic). The Boston airport will probably have more availability and options. It is suggested to use either Google Maps or MapQuest to get to campus, as the GPS doesn't always register our campus well. The address 200 Westboro Road, North Grafton, MA 01536 is the general address for our campus. Visitors will need to rent a car, because there are no hotels within walking distance of campus.
