

TED Y. MASHIMA, DVM, DACZM, DACVPM
Associate Executive Director for Academic and Research Affairs
Association of American Veterinary Medical Colleges

Ted Y. Mashima is the Associate Executive Director for Academic and Research Affairs for the Association of American Veterinary Medical Colleges, a nonprofit association that coordinates the affairs of the veterinary colleges in the US and other academic veterinary medical institutions. He previously served as the president and executive director of the Asian & Pacific Islander American Scholarship Fund, associate director for the Center for Public and Corporate Veterinary Medicine and the projects director for the National Association of Physicians for the Environment. He has a BA (zoology) from the University of Hawaii at Manoa and a DVM from Colorado State University. He completed an internship in exotic animal, wildlife, and zoo animal medicine at Kansas State University and a residency in zoological medicine, wildlife emphasis, at North Carolina State University. He is board certified in both zoological medicine and veterinary preventive medicine. In the past, he was the vice president of the American College of Zoological Medicine, on the board of directors for the Alliance of Veterinarians for the Environment, and a research associate with the Smithsonian Institution's National Zoological Park. He is the co-editor of The Rhino with Glue-On Shoes, and Other Surprising True Stories of Zoo Vets and Their Patients.